SIGNATURE TALKS

1. A Marriage Doesn't Die in a Fire. It Dies at Room Temperature.

Why good marriages go cold with nobody at fault, and the daily reps that bring the heat back.

2. That's Not a Therapy Problem. That's an Operations Problem.

The roommate marriage is a discipline failure, not a feelings failure. Fix the ops, the feelings follow.

3. Standing Orders: Thirty Daily Missions to End the Roommate Marriage

The four muscles men let go soft after 'I do': presence, communication, pursuit, leadership. And why nobody decides to stop pursuing, autopilot just drifts.

BIO

Harley Tanner enlisted in the Marine Corps in 1987. An injury took the uniform, never the discipline. He went on to become a Le Cordon Bleu trained executive chef, a professional racer until 2010, and a certified life, business, mindset and relationship coach.

Married three times, with two amicable divorces, he is now married to the right woman. He teaches men what he learned the hard way: a marriage doesn't fail in a fire, it fails at room temperature, and the man has to move first.

His book, Standing Orders, gives married men thirty daily missions to end the roommate marriage. Through Date Like a Boss he coaches divorced men to find and keep the last relationship of their life.
